Dear Mrs. Jocelyn:

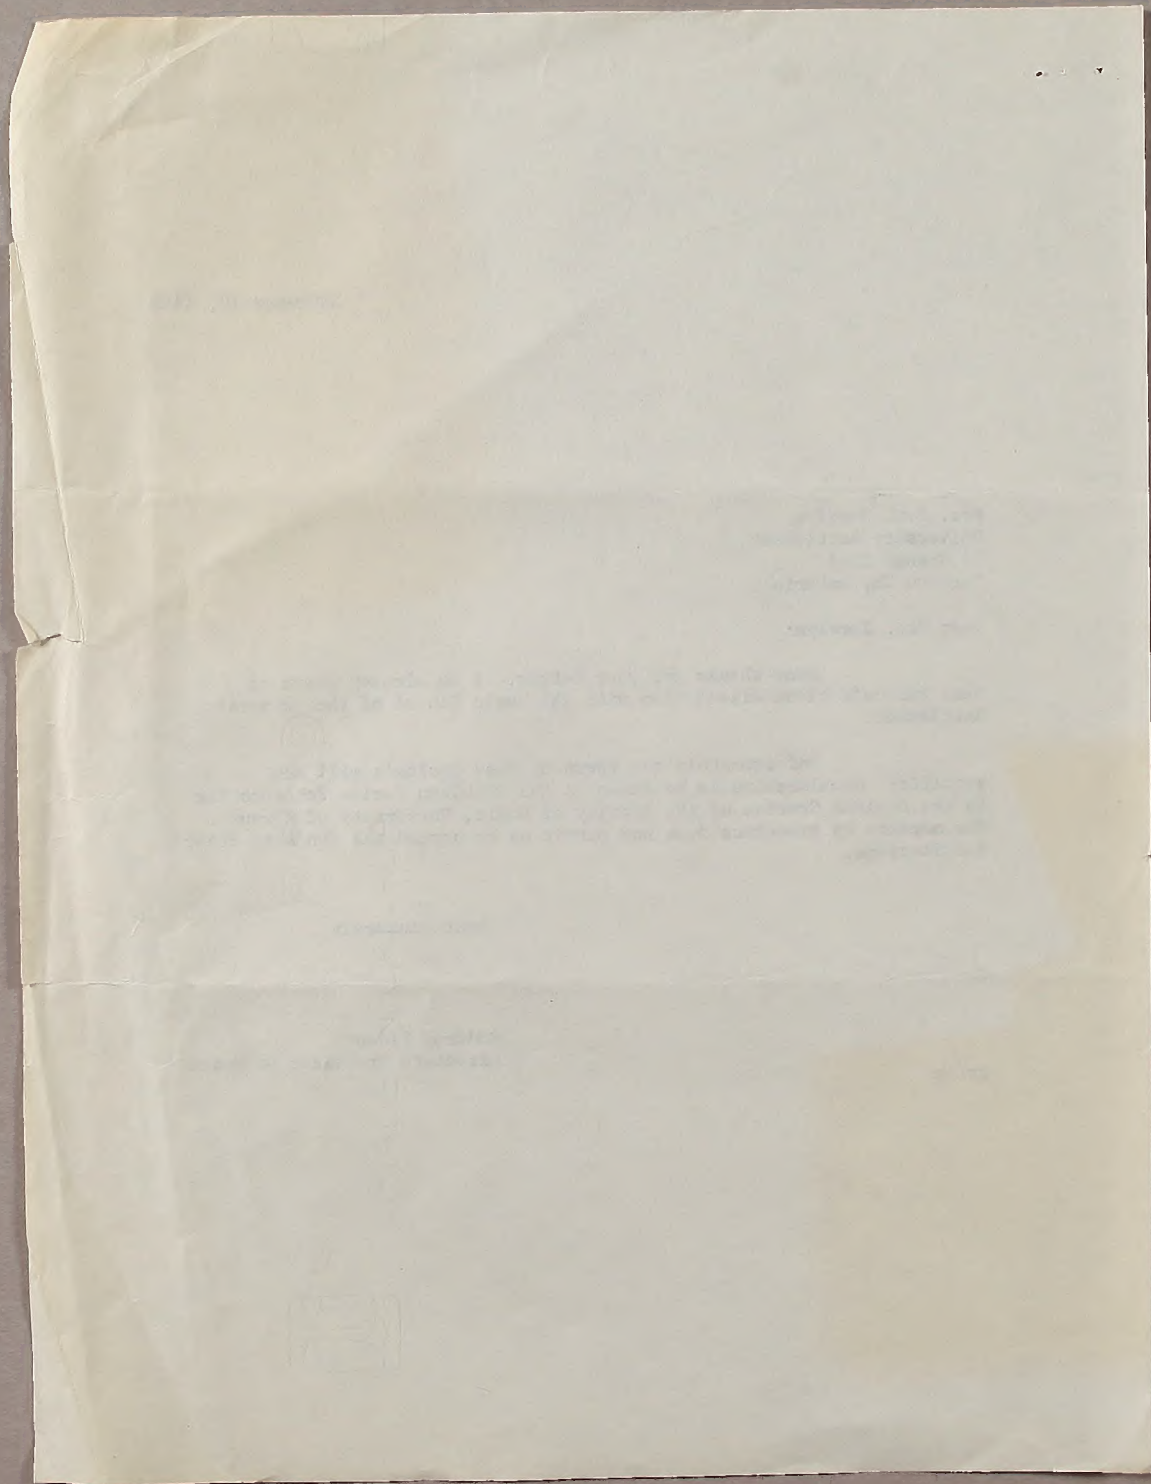

Many thanks for your letter. I am already aware of Miss Parlow's close association with the Music School of the University Settlement.

Unfortunately the terms of Miss Parlow's will are specific: Scholarships to be known as the Kathleen Parlow Scholarships in the Diploma Courses of the Faculty of Music, University of Toronto. Our mandate as executors does not permit us to spread the funds to other institutions.

Most sincerely

Godfrey Ridout

Dear Prof. Ridout;

I am writing to you on behalf of the Music Committee of the University Settlement, with reference to the estate of the late Kathleen Parlow. We understand that a Scholarship Fund is to be set up in Miss Parlow's name, and we are wondering if it would be possible to include string students from the Settlement Music School as beneficiaries.

Miss Parlow was for many years a valued member of our committee, which supervises the Music School and it's 300 students. She always maintained a keen interest in and enthusiasm for our work. As recently as last May, she acted as examiner in violin during the School's annual tests. Her advise was invaluable concerning the purchase of stringed instruments for use in the School and by gifted pupils.

We do give a number of scholarships, as our policy has always been to provide lessons regardless of student's ability to pay. We would be very happy, ourselves, to be able to acknowledge and perpetuate Miss Parlow's interest in the Settlement by giving a scholarship in her name. However our funds are limited by United Fund budget restrictions, and special scholarships for gifted students are out of the question.

We would welcome an opportunity to discuss this matter with you at your convenience.

Yours Very Truly,

Joy Jocelyn,
Mrs. A.G. Jocelyn, Secretary.
